Even my husband, who doesn't like cranberry juice, loves it! 07/24/2005 I certainly hope bdh76 in this did not put 9 cups of sugar!! That would definitely make a sweet haha! I gave only 1 1/2 as opposed to 2 everything else I followed exactly. Turns out it's more of a cranberry for me... I only put one cup in there, and you can taste the cranberry over the lemon. If you want it to look more pink you'll need to add a few drops of red food coloring too. All in all very tasty drink though!! 12/07/2003 I liked my girls. My mom even asked for a recipe! Thanks! 02/12/2004 Yum!!! This is my first review on the site although I've tried hundreds of recipes. I thought lemonade was a little sweet. I probably don't need a 9 cu. Sugar. Besides, i'm sure you're a guard! 12/07/2003 best ever!!!! 08/12/2008 This lemonade is a great addition to everyone's assemble. I use Splendo instead of sugar and it's just as good. Thanks for the refreshing drink. 07/05/2011 This lemonade is quite refreshing! I used bottled lemon juice (which I bought from Aldi) instead of using fresh lemon juice and it was delicious in this lemonade. I also used the raspberry-cranberry juice I bought from Aldi. The amount of ingredients I used was... 1-cup sugar 4-1/2 cup water 1-cup lemon juice and 3/4 cup cranberry juice. So you'll make exactly 56 unc the best lemonade to deust. Tonni thanks for posting this recipe. He's definitely a guard! 02/22/2010 This was a really good sweet lemonade. We juice a bunch of lemon and now freeze the juice in 2cup action just to make it! 01/29/2010 Hubs loves cranberry juice and he liked that too - not so much to me. Even though I'm not really crazy about cranberry juice, that wasn't a problem at all. Beautiful and pink, but too sweet for me. 08/07/2006 I have to say that the sugar was only far to a lot I only used 1 1/2 cups and was still very sweet. The cranberry made him pinch and covered all the beautiful lemons that could be there. I added only a small stream of juice from the peanut (juste nought to make it pink) and my family and I loved it. 1 out of 12 Old-fashioned pink lemonade Cindi M Bauer 2 of 12 Old-fashioned pink lemonade Kelly 3 of 12 Old fashionabe pink lemonade Lela 4 of 12 Old-Fashioned Pink Lemonade Kelly 5 of 12 old-fashioned pink lemonade Pam Ziegler Lutz 6 of 12 old-fashioned pink lemonade ruby_cube 7 of 12 old-fashioned lemonade lemonade lemonade Ziegler Lutz 8 of 12 Old-fashioned pink lemonade Cindi M Bauer 9 of 12 Old fashion pink lemonade Cindi M Bauer 10 of 12 old-fashioned pink lemonade zenaylvs 2cook 11 of 12 old-fashioned pink lemonade Jan Hawkins 12 of 12 old-fashioned pink lemonade Pam Ziegler Lutz This Easy Homemade Pink Lemonade Recipe is a pun of fresh, fruitful annual flavor! Because they're delicious. But booze is not something we often do here! Water is the way we go usually ☺So every once in a while (say, your eldest girl in just a few weeks aged 6!), you just want something a little special. Homemade pink lemonade to rescue you guys. My daughter likes pink, strawberries and lemon all, so it just happened to her. It's such a fun color for a bachelorette party or a children's shower! Honestly, I've never thought much about why pink lemonade is pink, I just know it's delicious, and pink is completely made of red fruit. Which is what we add here – you can make strawberry lemonade, raspberry lemonade or a combination! (Whether they mix and do cherries or something else that's red) If you've never explored the origin of a pink lemonade, you probably shouldn't. Apparently, dirty washing water and red hot cinnamon candy caused festive paint, although you won't find it here! Fresh, fruity and delicious is what we're going to do. I'm lucky here because my fists and all my girls love lemon and citrus. I know I hated lemon growing up (how is this whole dessert?!), but I think I like it more now even over chocolate! But although I love all things punchy and tangy, I always prefer pink lemonade over ordinary Jane, because strawberries tame this souring lemon flavor just enough. You can serve it with plain water or sparkling water, add other fruit flavors (you can go crazy here! Strawberry Kiwis? Blueberry?), or mix it with half an iced tea for a fun twist. It's perfect for making on and storing it in the fridge (you can even freeze it and nothing will change!), so choose a great batch for this summer cooking or barbecue and save yourself some to sip on later ☺Tips and tricks for making this homemade pink lemonade:Choose the best lemons — have a star here, so make sure you get lemons that are firm , but not difficult , slightly heavy, with bright yellow skin and no brushes. It's important to give a little when you squeeze them, because they'll give you more juice, which is We need it here! Be creative with your fruit – I use a combination of strawberries and raspberries, or you can use one or the other, or you can't! It's a recipe where the rules are supposed to be broken. Make your own make-up by replacing the fruit clearing! Do you have any leftovers? Put it in a tray of ice cubes to taste the iced tea down the road, or put it in an ice cream mould for refreshing goodness down the road! When you're done with the recipe, the flavor will be very concentrated. It's super easy to add as much or as much water or club soda or ice as you want to get the power you want! Pin this recipe for storage for laterPin this recipe to your favorite board1 cup granulate sugar 3/4 cup water1/3 cup lemon zest strips (about 2 lemons)1 cup fresh squeeze lemon juice (about 4 lemon)1/2 cups fresh strawberry puree1/2 cups fresh raspberry puree2 bead water i club sodaTo medium sospan over medium-high heat, add water and heace. Bring to the boil and soften until the sugar has dissolved. Add the strips of lemon zest, bring to cooking and cook for 5 minutes or until the mixture is reduced by almost half. Set aside to cool a little. Place a nice softening sieve over the jug. Pour the lemon syrup through a sieve into a jug, then pour lemon juice, strawberry pure and raspberry. You may need to use a spatula to mix the liquid around and press through, but it will work. Cool in the fridge until cold. Serve with the desired amount of water, club soda and ice cubes (about 2 cups).
